

Education for life...

Colston's School is located on a 30-acre site at Stapleton village in north Bristol. The Lower and Upper School share the extensive facilities available.

Welcome to the Colston's family

"Colston's is large enough to provide all that is necessary for a first class education, and small enough for each pupil to be known and valued as an individual"

David Marsh Chairman of Governors

Peter Fraser Headmaster

Caroline Aspden Head of Lower School

Best possible start

Starting out...

"The strong link between school and home encourages our children to do well. They know we are all working together"

Mrs Susan Fredericks Parent

*“As well as playing the piano I enjoy playing the clarinet in the orchestra.
I’m looking forward to taking some more music exams”*

Nathan Carter Year 4

*"I enjoy Maths and English.
Our teachers explain things really well and keep us interested"*

Jonathan Roper Year 6

Moving on up...

"I was at the Lower School, so the move was easy. I knew my way around and recognized so many faces"

Ben Moore Year 7

"I love music, and the progress I'm making on violin and piano at school will hopefully enable me to play for life"

Milo Chen Year 10

“One of the main reasons I enjoy doing art so much is that it should help me as a teacher at reception level. That’s what I really want to do”

Emma Carpenter Upper Sixth

Stepping out...

"I get the chance to work with young children at the Lower School every week, and love every minute of it"

Elena Bennett Upper Sixth

"I am delighted to have won an RAF Sixth Form Scholarship, and am planning a career in the RAF as a pilot after university"

Neal Buffery Upper Sixth and Head Boy

Colston's is one of the most successful rugby schools, winning the Daily Mail Cup on several occasions and producing many schoolboy international players.

*“Our sports facilities are outstanding,
and playing hockey on the Astroturf pitch is fantastic”*

Nicky Clark Upper Sixth and Head Girl

We are committed to excellence in academic, cultural and sporting pursuits. All pupils are encouraged to secure personal success and achievement wherever their talents may lie.

No other school in Bristol offers such beautiful and extensive grounds, creating a rural setting only 10 minutes from the city centre.

...to our futures

